Modjeska Tomorrow.

A brilliant star, surrounded by worthy satellites, set in a magnificent and picturesque firmament and shining upon an occasion that possesses many features of a peculiarly intense nature, describes the approaching Modjeska testimonial.

Of the great actress herself, little need be said at this late day. She is one of those artists who honor the stage and who helped raise it to its present high level among American institutions. Her praises have been justly sung scores of times in every city in the land, and she was never lauded more highly than for her portrayal of Lady Macbeth in "Macbeth," in which she is to make her farewell appearance at the opera house tomorrow evening. She has for the last time supported by as talented a company as ever seconded her, and with a production that compares favorably with any ever prepared for a classic drama. But not alone for these things will the vast audience assemble tomorrow night. The real magnet will be the fact that this will be the last time our playgoers will have the satisfaction of seeing this superb actress and splendid woman. So deep is her hold upon the affections of the people that they would seize this last chance to do her honor, no matter under what circumstances she might appear.

A stated convocation of Granite chapter, No. 26, on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock. Work, R. A. degree. Per order E. H. P.

The Daylight Store

ALL ABOUT HIGHER PRICES.

When you start out with five dollars and return with but four dollars' worth of goods and money all gone then you realize that things have taken a jump. The dry goods market is that way today and before you have time to think very many times prices will have moved up several notches. The following we want to ask you to think quick about.

GINGHAMS.

Whether you buy of us or at some other store if you can get them at old prices take all that you will want for Spring or Summer use.

Ginghams in a good assortment of styles, in plaids and stripes, now at only 8c per yard.

Madras Ginghams in plain colors, now at 8c per yard.

A. F. C. and Red Seal Ginghams in a full assortment now at 12 1-2c.

These goods are sold up ahead by the manufacturers for more than one year in advance.

PERCALES.

The story on Percale is a sad one, one of the largest manufacturers burnt out, another positively refusing to make any more Percale as long as the cost of manufacture is as high as at present. If you were to get new Percale of the best quality today the price would have to be 18c, instead of 12 1-2c.

We have a few yard-wide Shirting Madras of the 20c and 25c grades that come in small cuts that we are selling at 15c per yard.

If you buy Lustre Satines any time while we have this lot the price will be only 15c. Later on the next purchase we will be quite a little more.

SILKS.

We are well supplied with Silks for the present and are holding prices down. This we cannot do very long.

Those who are wanting Silks for graduation or commencement dresses will get a better assortment now and at the same time save enough so that you can later notice it.

These Suesine Silks have already advanced since the season opened. Ours were bought at the old price and go to you the same way.

Our Band A 27-inch Colored Tafetas are priced at $1.00 only on our present stock.

Those that have not bought carefully and in advance will not be in a position to make you old prices and deliver the same quality goods.
